EXCITING NEWS FOR TRANSFORMATIONAL ARENA

Game-changing news regarding Quayside developments! It’s recently been announced that Sage have been confirmed as the naming partner for the transformational NewcastleGateshead Quays arena! A North East business that has sponsored the Sage since 2004, we’re delighted to share the news that a £10m deal has been struck as building work powers on. A bold, £300m project, that, once finished, will be capable of hosting the globe’s biggest artists in a world-class space, we can’t wait to see the area of the Quayside glittering with a new arena!

PABLO EGGS-GO-BAO ARRIVES IN NE1!

The super-popular Pablo Egg-Go-Bao has arrived in NE1! This unique eatery has set up shop on Blandford Street, serving up their signature flower-filled breakfast bao buns! A true North East foodie icon, head here and plump for a crispy hash brown nestled alongside a succulent sausage patty, topped with melty cheese and a soft omelette – all snuggled nicely in a bouncy bao bun. They’ve got vegan and veggie options too, so get over and make your next breakfast beefsteak! egrgbao.co.uk

NORTH EAST FABLES TO BE REIMAGINED IN SPECTACULAR NORTH OF THE TYNE, UNDER THE STARS EVENT

A feast for the eyes will soon be arriving in the city centre, plans have just been announced to transform the city into a kaleidoscopic playground as North of the Tyne business that has sponsored the Sage since 2004, we’re delighted to share the news that a £10m deal has been struck as building work powers on. A bold, £300m project, that, once finished, will be capable of hosting the globe’s biggest artists in a world-class space, we can’t wait to see the area of the Quayside glittering with a new arena!

STRIKING NEW LIGHTING GIVEN GO-AHEAD FOR NORTHUMBERLAND AND PILGRIM STREET!

Wash, check this out! The city centre transformation project is beginning to take shape, as it’s just been revealed that 17 sculptures, inspired by the wooden guide poles found across the countryside, will be installed on Northumberland and Pilgrim Street! Decorated with medieval patterns and copper etchings by local artists, planning permission for the pillars has been granted and will serve the city as a new feature and light up our city’s streets at night! We can’t wait for them to be installed! newcastlegov.uk

NEWCASTLE BUSINESS SUPPORT GRANTS ARE LIVE!

Heads up! To all of our business support grants are now live and fully running, meaning you can now apply for a range of grants to help reduce Ocrisar’s impact on your business. These grants are aimed at supporting businesses that have been hard hit by reduced trade and cancellations due to varies over the spread of Ocrisar in the run-up to the Christmas trading period. So, for businesses both big and small, the all-important link for the latest grants is below – get to it! newcastlegov.uk

THE BROAD CHARE NAMED ONE OF THE UK’S BEST GASTROPBUS!

Another accolade for our city’s amazing hospitality sector? Get in! We’re buzzing to learn that The Broad Chare has been awarded 19th place in a list of the UK’s Best Gastropubs! It’s been dishing up proper pub food and lush beer since 2011 and it’s no surprise to us here in NE1 that this collaboration between Terry Laybourne’s 21 Hospitality Group and the Theatre has achieved a spot on this prestigious list! It’s safe to say this is a huge achievement for the team and we can’t wait to get down for a pint to celebrate!

THE HOI POLLOI LAUNCH BRAND NEW RANGE OF COOL MERCH!

Blimey! That’s it’s very own football shirt! The guys have a few shirts left in stock, and we think this will go down as an iconic bit of Toon paraphernalia in years to come! thehoipolloi.com

MAGIC BOX CELEBRATES 30 YEARS ON NORTHUMBERLAND STREET

Big news for one of Northumberland Street’s most-beloved shops! We’re raising a glass to Magic Box who are celebrating three decades in the city. This magnificent shop has been supplying the party-goers of Newcastle with everything from rainbow coloured wigs to spooky masks of your favourite horror movie villains. We’re all been there, queued halfway down Northumberland Street on the day before Halloween, relying on Magic Box to save us from a boring homemade costume! They always pull through and for that we thank them, Newcastle just wouldn’t be as fancy without you Magic Box! magicboxfancydress.com

ALLAN SAINT-MAXIMIN GIVES BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

When he’s not busy scoring bangers and making defenders look silly, Allan’s generally just being a top Geordie and it’s evident with his latest show of Toon community spirit! The NUFC star donated a substantial sum to Newcastle West End Foodbank after being made aware a fan was selling face masks to raise cash for the charity – the latest in his series of good deeds. It seems Allan’s a class act on and off the pitch...

NE1 AND BOBBZILLA ADD A VIVID SPLASH OF COOL TO THE GREAT MARKET!

Woah! What a difference some vibrant colour makes! If you’ve been up to the Great Market recently, you can’t have missed the massive Bobzilla mural we recently commissioned alongside the owners of the Cathedral Square building. It’s a wonderful installation packed full of wavy shapes, cool colours and eye-catching designs and we are profoundly chuffed with the final result, adding yet another reason to visit the amazing Great Market area! What do you think? Tag us in your snaps at @NewcastleNE1 next time you’re out and about in the city!

Theatre Royal celebrates 185 years on Grey Street!

A JEWEL IN NEWCASTLE’S CROWN THAT CONTINUES TO DRIVE WORLD-CLASS CULTURE INTO THE HEART OF THE CITY, THE THEATRE ROYAL WILL MARK 185 GLORIOUS YEARS ON GREY STREET THIS FEBRUARY, AND WE THINK THAT CALLS FOR A CELEBRATION!

SETTLE IN, AS WE TAKE A LEAP BEHIND THE SCENES TO BRING YOU AN INSIGHT INTO THE THEATRE ROYAL, ITS FASCINATING HISTORY, BIG PERFORMANCES FROM BIG NAMES AND THE WONDERFUL WORK THEY DO IN THE COMMUNITY.

A GRAND DESIGN...

Newcastle Theatre Royal is one of only nine Grade I-listed theatres in England, and since opening in 1837 it has been renovated many times to keep this exquisite space glittering!

One of the major renovation projects occurred just recently. In 2011, a six-month restoration recreated Matcham’s classic 1901 Edwardian design. This occurred just recently. In 2011, a six-month restoration recreated Matcham’s classic 1901 Edwardian design.

It features what we reckon is probably the finest Theatre Foyades in the UK, later combined with a fine 1901 auditorium by the great theatre architect, Frank Matcham, after the original interior had been destroyed by fire during a performance of Macbeth in 1899 - something that was definitely not part of the script (one, it is unlikely)...

A RAID OF Blockbuster names of the stage have trodden the Theatre Royal’s famous boards! From Henry Irving to Laurence Olivier and Dame Judi Dench, as well as Hollywood greats such as Drace Wekes, Chatten Heston, and Jack Lemmon, A-listers have always jumped at the chance to perform at one of the greatest theatres in the world!

The first production to take to the stage in 1837 was Shakespeare’s ‘The Merchant of Venice’ preceded by a commercial rendition of God Save the King.

In 2016, Disney and Cameron Mackintosh's star-studded and multi-award-winning musical Mary Poppins had a spectacular run at the Theatre Royal spanning almost two months! The musical story of the world’s favourite nanny was seen by nearly 70,000 people and brought nearly £3 million to the Box Office.

THE STAGE IS YOURS!

Not only do the Theatre Royal welcome the biggest names and best productions to the stage, but this wonderful lot also nurture the region’s brightest talent through their wonderful collaborative course with the Northern School for Drama, Project A!

A wonderful initiative designed to give back to the arts community and get local people up on stage, Project A gives students the chance to shine on the biggest stage and provides an invaluable pathway in the arts.

Notable graduates include Rosie Boocock who starred in Much Ado, Sophie Jane Butler who appeared in Grease and Jamie Dennison. Nice work!

THE BOOK OF MORMON

Hello! The Book of Mormon is headed to NE1 and this outrageous musical comedy from the creators of South Park, Avenue Q, and Fozzie is certain to blow your socks off! The musical follows the misadventures of a mismatched pair of missionaries, sent on a mission to a place that’s about as far from Salt Lake City as you can get. Now with sold-out productions in London and on Broadway, The Book of Mormon has become a global sensation - and it’s heading to the city this summer. A musical must!...
Fantaisie Française!

INSPIRED BY THE CHARMING BISTROS FROM THE STREETS OF PARIS, CÔTE BRASSERIE IS ONE OF THE TOON’S MOST DELECTABLE SPOTS WHEN IT COMES TO SAMPLING OPULENT CUISINE IN A LAVISH SPACE.

WE SWUNG BY DURING NE1’S NEWCASTLE RESTAURANT WEEK FOR A TASTE OF THEIR AUTHENTIC FRENCH CLASSICS AND LET US BE CLEAR, C’EST MAGNIFIQUE!

Standing tall on Grainger Street, Côte Brasserie is a grand restaurant that encapsulates the quintessential essence of Parisian eateries found tucked away in the French capital’s quaint suburbs. It’s undisputedly one of NE1’s top establishments when it comes to delectable French gastronomy coupled with elegant cocktails served within a cozy cosmopolitan space.

The interior of Côte Brasserie, similar to the food, is spectacular. It’s a decadent restaurant that features alluring lighting, complementary colourscapes and Art Nouveau features to create a truly beautiful place to dine. With NE1’s iconic Restaurant Week lighting up our social diaries, we weren’t about to sleep on a truly beautiful place to dine.

Our tasting nirvana begins with a pear and goat’s cheese salad and tarte aux mirlitons. Both of which, are truly out of this world. Nestled on a delicate bed of crème chantilly, our tarte aux mirlitons is a melt in your mouth experience, perfectly balanced with tangy lemon sorbet sends our hearts racing.

Let it be said now, Côte’s tarte aux citron needs caution to the wind by diving head first into Côte’s delicious dessert menu. Nestled on a delicate bed of crème chantilly, the seasonal berry pavlova arrives with a crisp crust, any meringue and topped with an array of seasonal berries.

How did you get into hospitality? I became interested in hospitality when I got a part-time job at the old Popolo site on Pilgrim street around 12 years ago during my time at university here. By the time I came to graduate, a once hard-working bar and was one of the most talented hospitality team of people and saw the potential for us to expand to the Savoy, there was always something special about Newcastle that encouraged me to return. After a few years of working at House of Tides as Bar Manager and for Fentimans Ltd, I felt I had learnt enough to give it a go.

Family Fun

Half-term on the horizon! FROM 21 FEBRUARY

KEEP YOUR TRIBE BUSY WITH BUNDLES OF SCRUNTIOUS FOOD, WONDERFUL WORKSHOPS AND COOL CULTURAL AFFAIRS!

For hungry explorers

STACK
A fantastic hub for entertainment, culture and foodie fun! A vibrant urban village brimming with local independent eateries and bars, tucked into a wide range of mouthwatering cuisines at STACK with the likes of Acropolis, Bon Bon, Buoy Burger and Redhead’s. Yum on! Chelseas and Quesa all serving up seriously delicious bites!

PIZZA HUT
Watch your children’s eyes light up as Pizza Hut’s kids menu lands on the table! Nestled in The Gate (the perfect post-cinema top spot!), Pizza Hut is inviting your tribe to dine out for a purge-pleasing price with their new kids offering. Young ones can choose from the Little Boss menu that features pizzas, spaghetti bolognese or chicken before diving into an oily ice cream sundae!

BABUCHO
There’s no one pickier than little ones at a restaurant, they know exactly what they want! So, take your tribe down to Lower Dean Street so they can make their own pizza! Watch as your kids get creative in the kitchen with the opportunity to decorate their own dough’s hat, make their perfect pizza and even meet Babucho’s top chef!

NANDOS
Let your little chooks dive into delightful Afro-Portuguese flavours this half-term. With restaurants in Eldon Square, The Gate and on Westgate Road, Nando’s have designed a special menu for kids under 10 that’s jam-packed with a bunch of different options for the young foodies out there. The best thing? Nando’s kids menu clocks in at just £5.95 - chicken never tasted so good!

WAGAMAMA
Give little ones a mouthwatering taste of authentic Japanese cuisine with a culinary expedition over to Wagamama at Eldon Square! This oriental palace is home to a mega range of smaller Japanese dishes where little ones can broaden their foodie horizons with a rare chicken ramen or their oh-so-popular katsu dish! A lovely place to spend half-term tucking into simply delicious meals!

For gamers, graphics & geeks

THE CTRL PAD
From retro classics including Super Mario, to the latest blockbuster releases for PS5 and Xbox, The CTRL Pad are welcoming little ones from all over the Toon to escape the house, spark those imaginations and run wild into dazzling alternative universe. So, whether you’re a gaming pro or have never picked up a controller before, the friendly team at The CTRL Pad have your half-term in the Toon covered.

FORBIDDEN PLANET
The Forbidden Planet team are inviting comic fanatics from across the North East to lose themselves in the wonderful world of comics! Standing tall over on Grainger Street, Forbidden Planet is a bustling entertainment hub that specialises in exclusive comics, rare trading cards and collectable board games. Don your Marvel kit and look forward to a day of fantastic fantasy fun this February!

YUME WORLD
The Gate’s spectacular gaming hangout is back in action and they are offering gamers an incredible variety of games this half-term. And gamers can enjoy 30% off all games on Monday and Tuesday and 3 for 2 on Virtual Reality rides every Thursday! It’s a must-visit for those wanting to explore the future of gaming or try the spectacular world of VR during the half-term!

TRAVELLING MAN
Head to Travelling Man if you’re keen on flicking through page after page of Manx handbooks, DC prints and an epic supply of manga titles! Whether your kids are looking to add to their Daredevil collection or just beginning to dip their toes into comic books and graphic novels for the first time, one trip to Travelling Man on Grainger Street will have them coming back for more! We can hear our wallets creaking from here!

For culture chasers

MOG THE FORGETFUL CAT AND FRIENDS 21 - 23 FEBRUARY
Oh, nice! This half-term, Seven Stories are celebrating the wonderful world of Judith Kerr with a spell-binding storytime adventure with Mog the Cat who is a very, very forgetful feline. Help Mog and her friends to remember where her belongings are, and join in with a bunch of exciting activities that’ll have you exploring every crevice of this wonderful venue.

MOUSE HOUSE THROUGHOUT HALF-TERM
Don’t miss a special adaptation of Great North Museum’s much-loved Museum Mouse sessions this February! The Mouse House is here and the lovely GNM team are inviting young ones and families to explore the museum in a day bursting with free adventure and excitement! Exploring tons of different themes using the museum’s gallery, Mouse House is the ideal activity for little ones to explore, make new friends and learn about a new topic with a series of fun and engaging games!

VICTORIA TUNNEL TOUR FROM 21 FEBRUARY
Experience the city like never before! This glorious guided tour is perfect for your gang and those setting out for a day full of Toon discovery! Using just your senses (it’s pretty dark down there you know!), you’ll learn how hard life was during World War II, see and touch the original tunnel built in 1842, listen out for the air raid warning, hear how planes flew overhead and how the people went about their daily lives. A day out bursting with the history of our great city awaits!

BALTIC FAMILY DAYS THROUGHOUT HALF-TERM
BALTIC is inviting the whole family out for two fabulous days of free activities! Bursting with creative challenges and exciting games, come together to explore making, painting and movement with BALTIC’s fab resident artists. With tons of pop-up areas and delicious foodie treats on offer throughout the day, make sure you get involved with BALTIC Family Days!

For family adventures

STEPNEY BANK STABLES
Test an ear to Stepney Bank Stables in the Toon and book in for a Junior Jockey lesson! Saddle up and enjoy a 30-minute pony riding session with the experts. You’ll learn how to clean your pony with a grooming guide, and then you’ll head inside for an exciting, pony-inspired art and craft workshop. The perfect activity for the little animal lover in your life!
