EACH ISSUE WE WELCOME YOU TO THE MAGAZINE WITH AN INTRODUCTION FROM A MEMBER OF THE NE1 TEAM, GIVING YOU THEIR UNIQUE TAKE ON WHAT'S GOING ON.

FRESH FROM THE PRESS

Wow! What a fortnight, what a month, what a summer, what a city!

The NE1 magazine has had a place in my heart, and calendar, since long before I was lucky enough to work on it. It told me of openings, events, offers, and tidbits of gossip and I made sure to read it every issue.

But now... now... the new format blows my mind every time we see it.

There's so much to see and do! So many things I'd never heard of, places I've never been, even routes I've never walked. From Topsy Tea to Sushi Specials, behind-the-scenes at the Theatre Royal to Animal Yoga, the new magazine makes me want to plan something new every evening, and skip work most days.

In my opinion there's never been a more exciting time for events in the city, and the magazine can't help but reflect that. During a fortnight in August we see live music from the Libertines to Brian Wilson, a food event with over 100 restaurants to choose from, and an outdoor cinema for sunny afternoons and summer evenings. Fantastic!

I love watching it come together, and I use it in the same way I hope you do. Read on, and get the red pen out because I can tell you, there's some planning to do!

Ben Whitfield,
Marketing and Events Manager

THERE'S NEVER BEEN A MORE EXCITING TIME FOR EVENTS IN THE CITY

THE NE1 AT A GLANCE

Where did that fortnight go? Time is flying and we're having far too much fun in NE1 this summer - it's only getting better as the weeks float on by. In this issue we have all the gastronomical goodness that comes with the tastiest event in the North East, smash-hit cinema screenings for deckchair chilling afternoons at Old Eldon Square and some fabulous family fun days to keep the little ones occupied through the summer holidays. We're catching up with the glamorous Bluebirds, we're indulging in sweet treats at the city's finest afternoon tea spots and we're supping craft beer in some super cool hangouts. Fitness fanatics can stay tuned with Active Newcastle and nostalgic music-lovers can check out the sensations Live From Times Square. Enjoy our city!

LIONIZE

This Wednesday, American quartet, Lionize bring their unique blend of rock 'n' roll to the stage in NE1. This toon musical spectacular comes as part of their string of explosive headline shows spread out over the summer months. The band's statement sound is rooted in hard rock, but they tend to experiment with other genres such as dub music, go-go, funk and reggae. Chris Brooks, Nathan Bergman, Henry Upton and Chase Lapp invite people of the North East to enjoy their new tracks live at the O2 Academy. academymusicgroup.com

BRING YOUR OWN WINE WEDNESDAY

The first Wednesday of every month is Caffè Vivo's Bring Your Own night. The evening couldn't be simpler — you supply the booze, and they cook up a storm to serve alongside your favourite tipples. So dig out that bottle of wine that you've been saving for a special occasion or pick out your favourite supermarket special and bring it with you to enjoy with your dinner. There's no corkage charge — what's not to love? We'll cheers to that! caffevivo.co.uk

BLACK & WHITE FRIARS WALK

Fancy walking the wonders of the city? Take a stroll and take in a bit of history too with the Black & White Friars Walk by City Tours. Walkers will meet at the Castle Keep at 7pm before heading off into the night, hearing all about Medieval Newcastle and how the past has helped shape the present city we live in. You'll learn about the Civil War Siege, 18th century society and more. So channel your inner history buff and join this educational walk around NE1. newcastlegetateshead.com/city-guides

THE HANDLEBARDS: AS YOU LIKE IT

Love bikes, Shakespeare and comedy? Didn't think you'd ever cover all three interests in one? The Cycle Hub have gone one step further and they've ticked them all off. The Handlebards are back in town with a production of As You Like It. The all-female show will bring the classic Shakespearean tale back to life with bicycle props and unusual humour. To date, the group have pedalled 6,000 miles and have performed to over 50,000 people across 12 countries and three continents. Now it's our turn as they pedal their way to Newcastle this Wednesday. It's a night like no other and it promises to be the ride of your life! thecyclehub.org

SUMMER OF LOVE

A nostalgic night of revolutionary music. Marking 50 years since the Summer of Love, Glasgow's psych rock cosmonauts Trembling Bells are set to hook up with original trailblazers Mike Heron and Ed Askew for a magic carpet ride of musical adventure at the Sage. Showcasing the real spirit of the 1960s, the Incredible String Band gave the colourful 'hippy generation' some of its most symbolic tunes. It's set to be an electrifying evening of 60s-style anthems. sagegateshead.com

ANIMAL 'YOGA'

Keep the little ones active this summer with a spot of yoga. Yoga is the of-the-moment activity. Everyone's joining the gym and everyone's making a conscious effort to be mindful in the midst of busy everyday life. And it's no different for youngsters. Taking a bit of time out to exercise while stretching, relaxing the body and learning about shapes and animals. It's an exercise class that ticks all the boxes. Can we have an adults session please? Join the team at the Great North Museum this Thursday for some 'Animal Yoga' where you'll stretch your body and create different shapes relating to animals. Each session will be followed by a museum hunt, encouraging children to seek out some of the animals featured in the session. It's fun, friendly, interactive and it's good for you too! greatnorthmuseum.org.uk

5 MINS WITH GRAEME PARK

Experimental orchestra, Hacienda Classical are back with a bang this Friday, performing Live From Times Square. DJ Graeme Park is in town for the performance. 6.30pm

First time on the toon? No. I've been visiting Newcastle since the 1980s and have DJ'd at many great clubs and events in and around the city for almost 30 years! It's always a massive night up here.

Have you brought your coat? There's no need. I'm from Aberdeen.

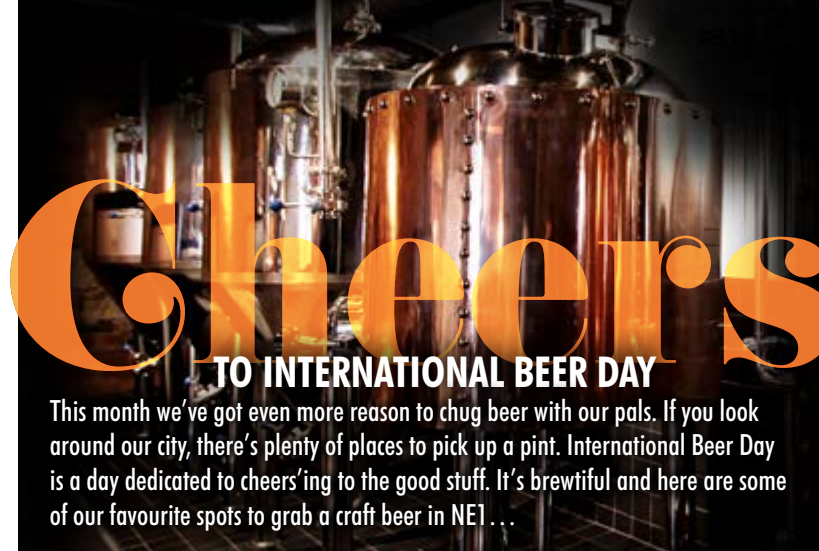

Best Tyneside moment? Every time I arrive on Tyneside and hear the wonderful Geordie accent and slang - I love it!

Favourite Geordie? Hmm now that's a tough one. Probably Neil Tennant as I love the Pet Shop Boys. Or maybe Jill Halfpenny because I'm a massive Strictly Come Dancing fan. Or maybe my mate, John.

NE1 plans? Yes. We'll be sticking around after the performance. I'll be celebrating my birthday with Mrs Park and me bairns.

What would you be doing if you weren't here now? Celebrating my birthday somewhere hot.

Fun fact? I used to be a racing driver. I raced in the Formula Ferrari Classic series in the late 1990s and early 2000s.

Cheers

TO INTERNATIONAL BEER DAY

This month we've got even more reason to chug beer with our pals. If you look around our city, there's plenty of places to pick up a pint. International Beer Day is a day dedicated to cheers'ing to the good stuff. It's brewtiful and here are some of our favourite spots to grab a craft beer in NE1...

THE BROAD CHARE

Go here for a brilliant beer list offering something for everyone. Whether it's guest ales, tap tipples, bottled beers or something fruity, the quality and craftsmanship here is second to none. House ales come in from Wylam Brewery and includes the pub's own-label brew, 'The Writer's Block' - a lovely dry-hopped pale ale. The Broad Chare is best-loved for its cosy snug, its comfy leather chairs, painted brickwork and its polished-oak bar. Kick back, relax and sup up. 25 Broad Chare, thebroadchare.co.uk

PLEASED TO MEET YOU

It might be known as a gin-lovers paradise, but Pleased To Meet You is also a real head turner when it comes to its exciting ale offering. If embracing the North East is your thing then this is the spot for you, with an ever-changing craft beer collection and some of the region's finest local produce. You'll find weekly specials, bottled beers, hand pulls, pale ales, Saison, IPA and many more. 41-51 High Bridge, ptmy-newcastle.co.uk

DAT BAR

With 20 ever-changing beer taps to choose from, dAt Bar is an urban base for beer-lovers to embrace on International Beer Day. Featured breweries include Anarchy Brew Co., Tyne Bank, Allendale, Magic Rock, Weird Beard, Kernel, Camden, Redchurch and Tiny Rebel among many others. We love popping to this quirky spot for some seasonal ales, a bit of bouncy music and some tasty nibbles. 11 Market St., datbar.gustouk.com

THE BRIDGE TAVERN

A brewery pub serving British comfort food and bespoke real ales. The Bridge Tavern is a little gem and a haven for beer-lovers. With its own two hectolitre micro brewery on the premises, it houses some of the finest local ales pumped straight into the hand pulls upstairs. The house brewer mashes daily, creating bespoke 360 pint batches of cask and keg ale. Round up your chums and say cheers to International Beer Day! 7 Akeside Hill, thebridgetavern.com

BREWDOG

Hop over to BrewDog for some serious craft beer awesomeness! A bustling city centre bar hosting regular live music, artistic events and beers that will get you talking, it's the perfect place to start your International Beer Day celebrations. Hang out, challenge your friends to a board game and taste some of the most exciting beers from around the world. We'll cheers to that! 16 Dean Street, brewdog.com/bars/uk/newcastle

LIVE FROM TIMES SQUARE
Bringing a Beach Boys legend and Manic Street Preachers to town this weekend!

Newcastle's outdoor live music spectacular, Live From Times Square will bring yet more amazing entertainment to the city centre this August as Beach Boys icon Brian Wilson and Welsh rock royalty, Manic Street Preachers roll into town. The event has already seen the likes of singer-songwriter Jake Bugg and the legendary indie outfit James take to the stage this summer and will now turn its attention to two of music's most recognisable forces.

As part of the two-week long festival, the Manics will be performing hits from their backlog of timeless indie classics for an epic headlining show this Saturday. They'll be supported by an all star cast of British talent in the form of Wakefield's rockers The Crips, Public Service Broadcasting and Dream Wife. And then there's the Beach Boy's chief songsmith and legend, Brian Wilson. Brian will be bringing the seminal Pet Sounds album tour to NE1 this Sunday with Seasick Steve in support. His show will prove to be the perfect closing performance for this year's gathering as he delights fans with classic Beach Boys hits for one last time.

What's on the Menu?

Foodies across the North East will be thrilled to know that it's that time of year again... NE1 Newcastle Restaurant Week is back - and it's bigger and better than ever before!

After counting down the weeks, now is the perfect time to book in at our favourite foodie hangouts and to check out the newbies that have arrived in town. Restaurant Week is the tastiest event of the summer season, bringing together more than 100 city eateries. There's a whole host of restaurants involved this year, ready to wow you with gastronomic goodness. There's plenty of newbies on the scene including tapas-tastic Kultur on High Bridge Street, the 1920s-style Colonel Porter's Emporium, savvy science spot The Alchemist, stateside special The Purple

Bear, Fenwick Food Hall's Porterhouse Butchers and Grill, Zucchini Pasta Bar and YOLO Townhouse.

If you're hoping to treat yourself and a loved one to an old classic, Restaurant Week's original key players include: Jesmond gem As You Like It, Blackfriars Restaurant, 21, Caffe Vivo, Piccolino and The Silk Room.

So whether it's date night, a family feast or a night out on the Toon with friends, NE1 Newcastle Restaurant Week gives foodies the chance to dine for a great price (£10 or £15 per person).

This wonderful week-long event brings something fresh and exciting to the table, and we can't wait to sample the delicious dishes and Restaurant Week deals.

PORTERHOUSE, FENWICK

OPENING THIS MONTH

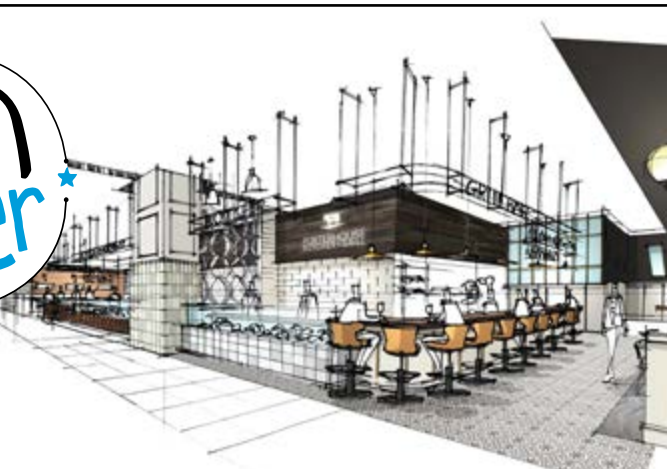

Meat is on our mind this summer and we can't wait to get our chops around Fenwick Food Hall's newbie, Porterhouse Butcher & Grill - a Terry Laybourne 21 Hospitality Group venture.

This meat-loving spot will offer casual dining at the counter as well as a seated restaurant area for more formal dining and for larger groups. Choose your meat from the butcher before relaxing and watching the chefs cook up a storm using a charcoal fired Jasper grill. It's a lively, dynamic environment where you'll get the chance to learn (and taste) from the very best. The grill and butchery will source local produce from the likes of Steve Ramshaw and his Northumberland Wagyu beef and Middle White pork from Ravensworth Grange Farm.

Diners will also be able to sample big hitting red wines and some classic cocktails too. We've got our steak knives at the ready and can't wait to sample this newbie soon... porterhousencl.co.uk

Celebrate NE1 Newcastle Restaurant Week at Porterhouse Butcher & Grill this week. (7th - 13th August)

You can enjoy two courses for only £10 or three courses for £15. Starters include: clear beef bouillon, cos lettuce salad and chicken liver pate. Mains include: rump steak, bacon loin and fire-grilled vegetables. Desserts include: soft almond meringue, bitter chocolate mousse and hafod cheese. To receive this offer, book in advance and quote 'NE1 Restaurant Week' upon booking.

Family Quest

SAGE GATESHEAD TAKES FAMILIES ON A QUEST TO SAVE THE MUSIC

Sage Gateshead needs the public's help to save the music in an exciting new interactive family event – Let the Beat Go On! Running throughout the school summer holidays until 26 August, Let the Beat Go On! encourages audiences to keep their wits about them if they are to beat 'The Silencer' – a mischievous being that has infiltrated the building and is trying to stop the music. Families will follow a hidden trail around the Sage's hidden locations - collecting clues and solving mysteries as they go. Throughout the treasure trail you'll release trapped sounds, bringing back the music for a huge finale in a celebration of sound.

Suitable for all ages, Let the Beat Go On! will run four times a day, three days a week on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Tickets are £6 per child and adults go free. For more information and to purchase tickets visit: sagegateshead.com.

Forties flavour

DON YOUR BEST FORTIES FROCK AND FLIP YOUR WIG BACK AND FORTH TO THE VINTAGE SOUNDS OF THE BLUEBIRDS!

Think glam gear, jukebox hits, war-time classics and vintage vocals. The Bluebirds are a close harmony trio performing and celebrating all things forties. The three girls, Gina, Ami and Sarah are heading to the Toon for a nostalgic 1940s Canteen Dance Party at the Life Science Centre this September (exactly one month today). NE1 check in to find out about their vintage vibe, their favourite Geordies and their memorable Tyneside moments.

How did you meet?

We met as performers. Ami and Gina were dancers on a cruise ship and shared a cabin together. Sarah and Gina did a UK tour together in a show called 'Pop Goes the 80s'. Gina introduced Ami and Sarah and the rest is history.

What inspired the vintage vibes?

The sounds — they definitely suit our voices as a trio. It's a niche thing and it's something different, but it is becoming a really popular theme for events. After watching loads of 1940s-style sets, we fell in love with the Andrews Sisters.

Favourite tracks to perform?

We've all got our own favourites. Gina loves Bluebirds and Ami likes Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy. Quite a few of our tracks are cheeky songs so they're really fun to perform, especially when we can add a couple of dance moves in — although sometimes we look like a trio version of Morecambe and Wise!

Talk us through your uniform?

The military uniform is a traditional one but we've deliberately not tied to a country. We do a lot of English and American stuff so we wanted it to be neutral - but we also wanted it to be a bit bling so we got it pimped up a little with glitzy decorations.

Is vintage your go-to style away from work?

Actually, yes — because it's so on trend. A high-waisted trouser with a t-shirt and a big belt is a big look at the moment — and it's very 1940s. You'll never see Ami without a bright red lip and sometimes she rocks a headscarf too. So we all have little statement pieces that set us apart as artists on and off stage.

NE1 plans?

We're all really looking forward to a trip to the Toon — the city itself has a buzz about it. We've all been to the races and had a couple of nights out up here — so there are lots of good memories. We might plan to get here a bit earlier — so we can get a few trebles in! We definitely want to spend a day at the Life Centre. We used to come on school trips here so it's a bit of a blast from the past. We're also looking forward to a bit of shopping in Eldon Square and a walk along the Quayside.

Will you be hitting the vintage shops in NE1?

Definitely, we've heard good things about the shopping here.

Tell us about the 1940s Canteen Dance Party in September?

It's full of energy and if you're a foodie, you'll be glad to hear there's a really cool ration-inspired meal included. It's 1940s from the start and we're encouraging everyone to get dressed up — there's a prize for best dressed! We might be doing a bit of jitterbug dancing around the tables to get people up for a bit of dance and we've got some good old British songs to get everyone feeling patriotic.

Most memorable Tyneside moment?

Gina: "I remember going out one winter and obviously you don't take a coat or anything up here. I actually cried I was so cold! But it was just so normal for everyone else. Everyone seems to be able to hack it! "I used to go to all the football matches too — there's such a good vibe on a game day up here. The city is just buzzing all day."

What's on your set list?

It's mainly 1940s music but we do cross over into the 1950s now and then and we even slip some 1960s bits in there sometimes. We have recently started to cover a couple of contemporary hits but we try to keep it in a 1940s-style. So we'll do things like Nicki Minaj with a vintage twist!

Favourite Geordie?

Ant and Decl! Can we pick two? Oh and one more... Alan Shearer—he's very good on Match of the Day. Also, is it shameful to say the cast of Geordie Shore? Not very 1940s but hey ho! We also love Little Mix. We like Geordies!

ZAAP!

Take a short trip to Thailand and eat in a tuk tuk in the heart of the Toon! Zaap on Newgate Street has been bringing tasty Thai street food to NE1 for a year, and we love it more and more every time we pop along! As soon as you step inside you feel like you've been transported to the night markets of Bangkok - with hanging street cables, colourful posters and that sensational smell of street food in the air. It's a vibrant hangout where you can treat yourself to some Thai favourites and try some tipples that will take you out of town, all the way to the street parties of Khaosan Road. Whether you're after a chilled Chang, a creative, summer-inspired cocktail, a perfect Pad Thai or a bowl of noodles, there's something for everyone. Pop along and join in the buzzy, authentic Thai party as Zaap Thai Street Food celebrates it's first birthday in the Toon. Zaapy Hour runs everyday from 11am - 6pm, where you'll bag 2-4-1 cocktails - so there's plenty to be Zaapy about! zaapthai.co.uk/newcastle

PIZZA & PROSECCO

Who doesn't love a good pizza every now and then? Even better when you get to swill it down with a bubbly glass of prosecco. Blackfriars Restaurant are once again satisfying our cravings this summer with a Pizza and Prosecco Night - a fun and interactive pizza-making social where you'll get to make pizza, taste pizza and sip some of the good stuff on the side. The Blackfriars master baker will show guests just how easy it is to make hearty homemade sourdough flatbreads and pizzas full of tasty artisan toppings. Prepare yourself for a fine selection of both sweet and savoury pizzas - satisfying those with a sweet tooth too! blackfriarsrestaurant.co.uk

Pack up a picnic

FROM CULTURAL CASTLES AND SANDY BEACHES TO BLOOMING GARDENS AND TYNESIDE BENCHES, WE FIND THE PERFECT PICNIC SPOTS TO DINE AL FRESCO IN NE1 THIS SUMMER.

NEWCASTLE CASTLE

Set up your picnic atop Newcastle Castle and you'll feel worlds away as you take in the city's culture. This spot blends urban life with enough greenery to trick you into thinking you're in the countryside for a moment or two. After exploring the historic site, head down to the grassy banks which surround it and enjoy some al fresco lunch in the sun. It's the perfect setting to unwind with a picnic as you take in the sights of the city. newcastlecastle.co.uk

NE1 SCREEN ON THE GREEN

Old Eldon Square is the perfect spot to unwind with a picnic whilst catching your favourite flicks on the big screen. Gather the family together, pack up a seriously summery picnic and relax on the NE1 deckchairs as you take in a superb cinematic screening. getintonecastle.co.uk/ne1-events/screen-on-the-green

THOMAS COOK AIRLINES QUAYSIDE SEASIDE

If you like to be beside the seaside but don't want to sacrifice the hubbub of summer in the city, NE1's brilliant Quayside Seaside is the one for you. The Costa del Tyneside comes complete with sand and deckchairs - all the spot is missing is you, a picnic basket and a handful of pals. getintonecastle.co.uk

BLACKFRIARS

A quiet and peaceful oasis in the city centre. Swap the crowds for a picnic in the historical, sheltered ruins of Blackfriars Friary and take in some of NE1's most interesting old buildings as you snack. If you fancy a drink before heading home, why not pop in and see our friends at Blackfriars Restaurant? blackfriarsrestaurant.co.uk

ST THOMAS', HAYMARKET

If you're mid-shopping trip and fancy a light bite and a soak in the summer sun, the green oasis outside St Thomas Church at Haymarket is the perfect spot for a picnic. Pack up a basket of goodies or wander down Northumberland Street and grab something to-go, pull out your picnic blanket and off you go. sttomsnewcastle.org.uk

Gather up the little ones and join Ryder, Chase, Marshall, Rocky, Rubble, Zuma, Skye and Everest for an exciting live show. metroradioarena.co.uk

Cult classic

Kick back and enjoy a comical fantasy tale in the Great Hall of Newcastle's Castle Keep. The Princess Bride (1987) tells the tale of beautiful princesses and evil villains, journeying through a land of giant rodents and Spanish swordsmen. Watch it while you take in some city culture at Newcastle Castle. newcastlecastle.co.uk

Beauty break

Swing by the Grey Street Hotel for some time out and a tranquil treatment this Saturday. It's the Toon's new city spa and it's a serene pick for anyone wanting to nab a bit of me-time in the midst of all the weekend busyness. Book an appointment now at: allaboutyougsh.co.uk

Tasty townhouse

Book up a booth and enjoy a big family dinner at YOLO Townhouse this Saturday. Pick at a tasty pizza, bag a big juicy burger or try a hanging kebab skewer. yolotownhouse.com

Saturday night party

It's Saturday night and it's party time! House of Smith is the perfect spot for a Saturday social and a bit of a boogie. S@S is the grand slam of weekend parties - with great DJs, delicious drinks and dance floors hits keeping the party going into the early hours. house-of-smith.com

The Romans ride again

It might be the school holidays but we love learning something new here at NE1. Head to The Great North Museum this weekend for an exciting exhibition on Hadrian's Cavalry - exploring the role and daily life of the Roman army's cavalry forces. greatnorthmuseum.org.uk

Stadium Sundays

Suss out St. James' Park - the home of the Magpies - this Sunday, followed by a delicious roast at the stadium's NINE Bar. Touch the home turf, go behind the scenes, check out the media suite and take a trip down the Toon's tunnel as you follow in the footsteps of your favourite players. nufc.co.uk

Bang, crackle, pop!

One for the kids. Pop along and explore how sounds are made in this noisy Science Theatre show. Why does a whip crack? How does lightning make a noise? What makes a cannon go boom? You'll find out at the Life Science Centre this Sunday. life.org.uk

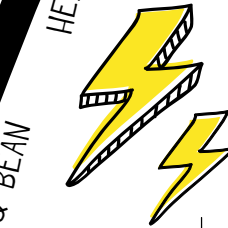

Morning munch

Start your Sunday with a healthy breaky at Olive & Bean. Energise with a bowl of porridge, pick at a continental offering or go all out with 'The Business' fried breakfast. oliveandbean.co.uk

What i did today

JO KILNER, GOSFORTH THURSDAY 20TH JULY 2017

It's not everyday this local lass jumps out of bed at 6am but this was no ordinary day. A 'special' request to see the sights of Newcastle had me donning my Lycra and trainers and heading off down to the Crowne Plaza to meet up with the acting ambassador of the USA - no less! On my arrival I quipped to a bloke on a bike - "Are you waiting for me?" "Yup!" Came the reply. Crikey! Two guys on bikes and two men in black, in a big black car were to follow us roondo the toon! This was like something out of a movie! The run began - the sights unfolded as smoothly as in the plan - Castle Keep, Swing Bridge, Millennium Bridge, Dean Street (puff, pant!) Grey Street, Leazes Park, St James' Park, Times Square, Central Station - 4.5miles - nailed it! The weather was balmy, the city looked great. Not an eye was batted as we ran through the streets - just two keanos out jogging early doors! Who'd have thought eh? The Ambassador and me!

RUSSELL BRAND - RE-BIRTH 13 & 14 DECEMBER

"How do we make sense of the madness of our lives once we become parents? What am I going to tell my daughter about conformity and responsibility? What happens if she grows up to be like me or, worse, date someone like me?" In his all new comedy show, actor and funny-man, Russell Brand attempts to answer all of the above. Since rising to fame in 2003, the comedian has also established himself as a broadcaster, an author, podcaster, columnist and political commentator - but he's never lost his comedic charm. Catch up with him this winter at Newcastle City Hall.
